Leader: As we celebrate our independence, let us remember that our truest freedom is found through Christ who laid down His life for us.

People: We are bound together by His love, sent to serve our communities and our world.

Leader: Now, may the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you. May the Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you His deep, unshakable peace.

ALL: Amen!

Break Bread with Us

Holy Communion is open to all Christians. The Bible says, "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." (I Cor. 11:28).

We take that to mean that the only test before coming to communion is that of self-examination.

As we eat the bread and drink from the cup, we are united with one another in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and with Christians of all times and all places. Christ meets us at the Communion table and gives us strength to be his faithful followers. Christ welcomes all who are part of the covenant community and are committed to the Christian life to eat this meal.
