You are invited to join the pastor at the altar during this Hymn of Invitation.)

*The Benediction (Responsive)
Pastor: Beloved, go out from here as workers in God's upside-down kingdom, where the last are first and the first are last, where needs are met in miraculous ways, and there is mercy and grace enough for all!
People: May we receive mercy with gratitude and offer it freely to our neighbors.
Pastor: And now, may the blessing of God—who hires the early and embraces the late—surround you, the love of Jesus Christ sustain you, and the communion of the Holy Spirit send you forth in peace.
People: Amen.

*Exit of the Light (The Light exits symbolizing that God goes with us.) Acolyte

*The Postlude "Let There Be Peace on Earth" (reprise) Ben Spicer, piano

Veterans Day began as Armistice Day on November 11, 1919, to mark the one-year anniversary of the end of World War I fighting at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918. Congress made it an official federal holiday in 1938 to honor World War I veterans. Veterans Day honors all veterans – those deceased and those living, regardless of whether they served in wartime or peace. Currently there are 1.3 million active-duty service men and women, with an additional 800,000 serving in the reserves. There are approximately 21 million American veterans alive today. We honor them in our service today.
